

Dictation

Student Book p.3

- Stop the frog.
- I can slam the lid.
- Plop it in the pan.
- ▲ It is not the best plan.
- ▲ Drag it to the nest.
- ▲ I am glad to be a twin.
- He spilt the rest.
- It can be grim at the top.
- Flag it up as the best.

Consonant digraphs

Name

Sound

‘sh’

/sh/

‘ch’

/ch/

‘th’ (voiced)

the

/TH/

‘th’ (voiceless)

/th/

‘wh’

/w/

/hw/

‘ph’

/f/

Stage Three

‘gh’ (and silent)

/f/

Stage Three

It will be noticed that all consonant digraphs contain an ‘h’. The ‘wh’ digraph is not usually given its /hw/ sound except in Scottish English, and ‘ph’ and ‘gh’ are taught later.

▶ AP 1.59–1.60

Words using consonant digraphs

Student Book p.4

Can be taught as onset and rime.

dish	such	crash	hush	slosh	chop
fish	much	flash	rush	thrush	chat
wish		mash	brush	chest
rich		splash	crush	chap
			blush	chip plush slush

▶ AP 1.61–1.62

Sight words

when said are who where you which

Dictation

Student Book p.4

- Where is the dog?
- Which is it?
- She got the cash.
- I wish I had that.
- ▲ When did you get it?
- ▲ He is such a rich man.
- ▲ He shut up the shop.
- ▲ Chop it up in the dish.
- She did not risk a crash.
- He had a lot of fish and chips.
- The thin man is in a rush.
- Where did you put it?.

More words using digraphs

Student Book p.5

sh

shin      shift      shop      shut      flush ship      shod      shun      brush      swish

ch

chin      chug      chum

th

cloth      than      they      thrust
 froth      that      thin

More words using blends*Student Book p.5

crest	bust	next	belt	crust	Fred quest	just	text	felt	rust	help
request	must	self	melt	quit	film
fist	rust	himself	swim	quid	flex
mist	trust	twelfth	swift	equip	held
twist	thrust	milk	swig	smog	result
exist	act	silk	swam	snip	adopt
insist	fact	left	lisp	snap	fret
cost	exact	lift	crisp	snub	bred
frost	exactly	loft	sulk	snug	scrap
lost	expect	loft	bulk	prop	scrub
	respect	soft		prod

▶ AP 1.63–1.73*Dictation*Student Book p.6

- The sun sets in the west.
- I am glad I went on that trip.
- You can sit at the desk.
- Did Fred run to the shed?
- Can you help me?