

CONTENTS

Preface xix

Chapter 1 THE LIFE CYCLE IN ITS CHANGING CONTEXT: INDIVIDUAL, FAMILY, AND SOCIAL PERSPECTIVES 1

The Family Life Cycle: A System Moving Through Time 1

The Changing Patterns of the Family Life Cycle 3

Dimensions of Human Development in the Context of the Family and Society 6

Developing a self in context: Belonging 8

Friendship through the life cycle 9

Developing a self in context: Gender 9

The connected self: Beyond autonomy and self-determination 13

A Multicontextual Life Cycle Framework for Understanding Human Development 15

Anxiety, symptom development, and healing 20

The sociocultural context of human development 21

The family context of human development 23

The individual life cycle in context 23

Multicontextual Assessment 31

Case Illustration: The Aiello-Lopez Family 33

Conclusion 40

References 40

Chapter 2 WOMEN AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 45

Introduction 45

Women's Changing Life Cycle Roles 46

Women and Education 48

Case Illustration: Marta Powell 48

Women and Work 50

Case Illustration: Velma Jefferson 51

Women in Families 52

Women in the Middle: Women and Caretaking 53

Women's Exclusion from Power Under the Law and Societal Expectations 54

Women and Marriage 54

Mothers and Children 55

Adolescence	56
Stepmothers	57
Launching children and moving on	57
Older Families	58
Women and Their Friendship Networks	58
Women and Loss	59
Conclusion: Affirming Women Through the Life Cycle	59
References	60

Chapter 3 MEN AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 63

Introduction	63
Childhood and Adolescence	67
Case Illustration: DeShaun	69
Men and Work	71
Men as Partners and Husbands	72
Case Illustration: Dave	74
Fatherhood	75
Men in Later Life	76
Case Illustration: Jim	77
Conclusion	78
References	79

Chapter 4 SOCIAL CLASS AND THE LIFE CYCLE 80

Introduction	80
Downward mobility and obstacles to upward mobility	81
Intersections of class and other factors	82
Understanding Social Class	84
Class position and families	85
Invisible class differences	87
Case Illustration: Sophie and Daniel	87
Case Illustration: Ta'asha	88
Case Illustration: Miguelito	90
Social Class and Families with Young Children	91
Social Class and Families with Older Children and Adolescents	93
Social Class and Families with Late Adolescents and Young Adults	93
Social Class and Families with Adults in Mid- and Later Life	95
Conclusion: Implications for Family Therapy	96
References	97

Chapter 5 THE LIFE CYCLE OF ECONOMICALLY FRAGILE FAMILIES 99*Introduction 99*Factors Affecting Economically Fragile Families*Throughout the Life Cycle 100

Racial/Cultural discrimination 101

Female-headed households 101

High unemployment/underemployment 101

Uncertainty 102

Toxic environments 102

Ongoing trauma exposure, disruptions in attachments, and untimely losses 102

Reliance on institutional supports 103

The Condensed Family Life Cycle: Assessment and Treatment 103

Stage 1: Adolescence and emerging adulthood 103

Stage 2: Coupling and raising young children 105

Stage 3: Families in later life 107

Overarching Assessment and Treatment Considerations 108*Case Illustration: The Long Family 110*Avoiding Therapist Burnout 113*Conclusion 114*References 115*Chapter 6 SEXUALITY AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 118*Introduction 118*Sexuality: Individual and Family Development 119

Boundaries 119

Case Illustration: The Bergens—A Case of Rigid Boundaries 120*Case Illustration: The Mishras—A Case of Loose Boundaries 121

Sexual beliefs/messages and resulting feelings/behaviors 121

Intergenerational patterns related to sex and gender 121

Cultural norms 122

Societal organizing principles 124

Sexuality Over the Family Life Cycle 126

Couplehood 126

Pregnancy 127

Young children and families 128

Case Illustration: Selena 128

Adolescents and families 128

Midlife 130

Families with older family members 130

Case Illustration: The Mahoney-Corelli Family 130
Gathering data and constructing a genogram 131
Patrick's family of origin 132
Angela's family of origin 132
Becoming a couple and raising their children 132
Interventions 133
Conclusion 135
References 135

Chapter 7 LESBIAN, GAY, BISEXUAL, AND TRANSGENDER INDIVIDUALS AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 137

Introduction 137
Current Status of LGBT Families in the United States 138
Access to marriage 138
Family growth 139
Diversity Among LGBT Families 139
Models of LGBT Identity Development 140
Identity Management and Coming Out 140
The Family Life Cycle 141
Leaving home and staying connected: adulthood 142
Case Illustration: Randy 143
Coupling 144
Case Illustration: Deborah and Sabrina 146
Parenting: families with young children 146
Case Illustration: Esther and Julia 148
Parenting: families with adolescent children 148
Case Illustration: Sonia 149
Families in later life 150
Case Illustration: Janice and Marva 151
Conclusion 152
References 152

Chapter 8 SPIRITUALITY AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 156

Introduction 156
Spirituality and Religion in America 157
The Family Life Cycle and Spirituality 157
Children and spirituality 157
Case Illustration: Anthony and Angelina—Children's Spiritual Beliefs May Comfort or Cause Anxiety 158
Adolescence: Identity Development and Spirituality 159

Case Illustration: Joshua—Adolescents Challenge Family Beliefs	160
Early Adulthood: Time to Explore and Make Choices About Spiritual Beliefs	162
Case Illustration: Lorraine and Richard—Interfaith Couple’s Counseling	162
Case Illustration: Ana and Luis—Spirituality Overcomes Oppression	163
Middle Age: Beliefs Reaffirmed	166
Case Illustration: Lucy—Spirituality, Spirits, and Resiliency in the face of Untimely Loss	166
Older Adults: Aging and Facing Mortality	168
Case Illustration: Pearl—Spirituality Promotes Dignity in the Face of Poverty and Oppression	168
Case Illustration: Eleanor—Unresolved Spiritual Issues and Depression	169
Conclusion	170
References	170

Chapter 9 SIBLINGS AND THE LIFE CYCLE 172

The Importance of Sibling Relationships Through the Life Cycle	172
Age Spacing	174
Gender Differences	174
Culture, Class, Race, and Ethnicity	175
Racial/Ethnic identity of siblings	178
Case Illustration: Robert and His Family	178
Birth-Order Effects on Sibling Relationships	178
Life Cycle Issues in Families With Disabled Siblings	180
Case Illustration: The Donnelly Family	181
Sibling Positions and Parenting	181
Siblings and Adolescent Relationships	182
Sibling Relationships in Young Adulthood	182
Sibling Positions and Marital Relationships	183
In-Laws, Step- and Half-Siblings	183
Sibling Relationships in Midlife	184
Sibling Relationships After the Death of Parents	185
Conclusion	186
References	187

Chapter 10 SINGLE ADULTS AND THE LIFE CYCLE 190

Introduction 190

Setting the Clinical Stage 191

Marriage as social empowerment 191

Marriage and the family of origin 192

Multigenerational themes 192

Class and culture 192

The Single Person's Life Cycle 193

The 20s: Establishing adulthood 193

Case Illustration: Bob 195

The 30s: The single crisis 195

Case Illustration: Young Soon 196

Case Illustration: Susan 197

Midlife: Developing alternative scripts 198

Case Illustration: Lorraine Sampson 199

Later Years: Putting it all together 200

Case Illustration: Lauren 202

Case Illustration: John 203

References 203

Chapter 11 FRIENDSHIP ACROSS THE LIFE CYCLE 205

Introduction 205

Trends Across the Life Cycle 206

Friendship in Childhood and Adolescence 207

Interaction of childhood friendships and family relationships 207

Developmental characteristics of friendship in childhood and adolescence 208

Sociocultural factors and friendship in childhood
and adolescence 209

Adult Friendships 210

Friends and resiliency 210

Gender and adult heterosexual friendships 210

Heterosexual couples and friendships 212

Friendships and divorce 213

Friendships in Later Life 213

Case Illustration: Jyoti 214

Friendships among lesbian, gay, and bisexual people 215

Case Illustration: Greg 216

Conclusion 217

References 218

Chapter 12 MIGRATION AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 222

Introduction 222

A Social Constructionist View of the Life Cycle 222

MECA for Migration and Life Cycle Processes 223

MECA: Migration/Acculturation 223

Migration as a developmental process 223

Migration as ambiguous loss and gain 224

Variations in the experience of traumatic migration 225

Family composition at migration 225

Lack of transitional rituals 225

Transnationalism and technologies of communication 225

MECA: Ecological Context 226

Linguistic and cultural dissonance 226

Host country receptions and community insertions 226

The stresses of racism 226

Double consciousness as a resilient response 226

Case Illustration: A OAXACAN Family 226

Silence, poverty, undocumented status, and empowerment 228

MECA: Family Organization 228

Family reorganizations due to migration changes 228

Case Illustration: Mary Gonzales 229

Generational tensions and family reorganizations 229

CEFSA: Cultural differences, ecological fears, and separation anxiety 230

Gender and parental control 230

Case Illustration: A Colombian Family 230

Gender role reorganizations in couple relationships 231

Family separations and reunifications 231

Case Illustration: Isabel 232

Case Illustration: Antonio 233

MECA: Family Life Cycle 234

Age and life stage implications for migration 234

Rites and rituals 235

Pileup of life cycle transitions in transnational contexts 235

Case Illustration: Ana Luisa 235

The immigrant's paradox 236

Conclusion 237*References 237*Chapter 13 BECOMING AN ADULT: LEARNING TO LOVE AND WORK 240*Introduction 240*Young Adulthood(s) in the New Century 240*Early Young Adulthood: Developmental Tasks 241Work tasks: Preparation without pay or earning out of necessity 242

Relationship tasks: Trying to find love in lust 242

Early Young Adulthood: Learning to Work 242

Learning to work: Blending meaning with remuneration 242

Learning to love and Hooking up 243

Idealism 243

Alcohol and drugs 243

Parents and college 244

Learning disabilities 244

Case Illustration: Arlene, Ray, and Judy 245

Mentors 246

The same-sex peer group affects love 246

The same-sex peer group affects work 247

Later Young Adulthood: Trying to Consolidate Work and Family 247

Learning to love: Beginning to form a pair bond 247

"Perfect" love 247

Learning to Love: From self-involvement to beginning to think like a householder 247

Mentors–disillusionment 248

Alcohol and drugs in later young adulthood 248

Family dynamics 248

Parents' relationship 248

How financial support affects relationships between parents and children 249Special Challenges of Young Adulthood for Lesbians, Gays, and Bi-Sexuals 250*Some Effects of Social Class and Gender on Family
Formation During Later Young Adulthood 251Precariously employed men of color may despair of filling the provider role in families 252

Barriers to affiliation for low income men	252
Precariously employed fathers may strive for affiliation with their children in an “uncle” role	253
Child-Rearing and Child Care as a Source of Meaning for Women of all Social Classes	254
Conclusion: Young Adulthood As a Transition for The Family	255
References	255

Chapter 14 BECOMING A COUPLE: THE JOINING OF FAMILIES 259

Marriage in our Times	259
Marriage: Sex, Love, Power, Money, and Administration	261
What Makes Marital Adjustment More Difficult?	264
Fusion and Intimacy	265
Case Illustration: Susan and Joe	267
Gay and Lesbian Couples	270
Case Illustration: Katherine Moore and Rita Hidalgo	270
The Wedding	272
Case Illustration: Ted and Andrea	273
Case Illustration: Jim and Joan	273
Sexuality	274
Patterns with Extended Family	275
In-laws	276
Sibling issues in couple formation	276
Cultural differences	277
Case Illustration: Jack and Maria	277
Conclusion	278
References	278

Chapter 15 BECOMING PARENTS: THE FAMILY WITH CHILDREN 280

The Transition to Parenthood	280
What children need for their development	281
Expectations versus Reality	284
The extended family	285
Couple Relationships and Traditional Roles in the Parenthood Phase	285
Child Care and the Work–Family Dilemma	287
Childrearing	288
Discipline	290
Protection against high-risk behaviors	291
Single parenting	291

Teenage parenting 291

Infertility 292

Adoption 292

Case Illustration: Jerome, Karen, and Susan 293

Gay and lesbian parenting 294

Children with disabilities 295

Child abuse 296

Clinical Guidelines 296

Case Illustration: Sharon and Gary 296

The evaluation 296

The therapy 298

Shifting focus among levels of the system 299

Conclusion 300

References 300

Chapter 16 THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE FAMILY SYSTEM DURING ADOLESCENCE 304

Introduction 304

Risk Behaviors and Prevention 306

Evolving One's Identity: The Balance Between Self and Other 307

Adolescent males 307

Adolescent females 308

Sexual orientation 309

Case Illustration: Horace 310

Racial and ethnic identity 310

A Multicontextual Three-Generational View 312

Case Illustration: Clara 312

Clinical Assessment 314

Case Illustration: Lois and Mark 314

Conclusion 317

References 318

Chapter 17 FAMILIES AT MIDLIFE: LAUNCHING CHILDREN AND MOVING ON 321

Introduction 321

Women and Men at Midlife 322

Facing Aging 323

The impact of social location 323

The impact of developmental changes 323

Case Illustration: Gail 324

Case Illustration: Jerry	325
Launching Children and Redefining Relationships with Them	325
Case Illustration: Bert and May	327
Renegotiating Relationships with Other Family Members and Friends	329
Accepting the expansion of the family through marriage and grandchildren	329
Renegotiating couple relationships	330
Divorce at midlife	331
Case Illustration: Tina and ED	332
Case Illustration: Karen and Stan	333
Renegotiating relationships with parents	333
Case Illustration: Delia	334
The Death of Parents	335
Acceptance of one's own mortality	335
Redefinition of family roles and responsibilities	336
Change in self-perception	336
Conclusion	336
References	337

Chapter 18 FAMILIES IN LATER LIFE: CHALLENGES, OPPORTUNITIES, AND RESILIENCE 339

Introduction	339
The Graying of the Family	339
The Varying and Extended Family Life Course	340
From Ageism and Gerophobia to a Larger Vision of Later Life	341
The vital importance of family bonds	341
Later-life transitions and challenges	342
Retirement	342
Case Illustration: Maria, Luis, and Raul	343
Grandparenthood	344
Case Illustration: Sharleen	344
Chronic Illness and Family Caregiving	345
Dementia: The long goodbye	346
Family intervention issues and priorities	346
Case Illustration: The Zambrano family	347
From designated caregiver to caregiving team	347
Case Illustration: JoEllen	348
Placement planning	348
Case Illustration: The Gupta Family	348

End-of-Life Challenges and Loss of Loved Ones	349
Cross-Generational Interplay of Life Cycle Issues	350
Case Illustration: Julia	350
Successful Aging: Meaning and Connection	351
The Wisdom and Spirit of the Elders	352
The Significance of Relational Connections	353
Clinical Challenges and Opportunities: A Resilience-Oriented Approach	354
Case Illustration: Rita	354
Looking ahead	355
Expanding Our Developmental Lens	356
References	357

Chapter 19 DEATH, LOSS, AND THE FAMILY LIFE CYCLE 360

Introduction	360
Family Adaptation to Loss	360
Assessing Loss in Life Cycle Perspective	362
Timing: When in the family's life cycle the death occurred	362
Role and relationships with the deceased	362
The socioeconomic, ethnic, gender, religious, political, and historical context of the death	363
The manner of death	363
The family's history of loss	364
Family's relationships and resources at the time of death	364
Loss at Various Family Life Cycle Stages	364
New couples	364
Families with young children	365
Case Illustration: The Lamb Family	366
Case Illustration: Phil and Stacey Kronek	367
Families with adolescents	368
Case Illustration: David	368
Case Illustration: Letter to Camp Counselor	369
Launching and moving on: Young adults and parents at midlife	369
Case Illustration: Brian	369
Case Illustration: Jack	370
Families in later life	371
Death in divorced and remarried families	372
Varied Life Course Challenges: Hidden and Stigmatized Losses	372
Diverse Cultural and Spiritual Beliefs and Practices	373

Conclusion 373

References 374

Chapter 20 DIVORCE: AN UNSCHEDULED FAMILY TRANSITION 376

Introduction 376

The Context of Divorce: Historical and Legal Perspectives 376

Demographics and the Probability of Divorce 377

Ethnic, Gender, and Life Cycle Variations 378

The Social Context 378

Divorce as a Multidimensional Process 379

The Binuclear Family 379

Dual-household binuclear families 379

Transitions of the Divorce Process 380

The Transitions Framework 381

Individual Cognition: The Decision 381

Family Metacognition: The Announcement 382

Systemic Separation: Dismantling the Nuclear Family 384

Systemic Reorganization: The Binuclear Family 386

Family Redefinition: The Aftermath 388

Clinical Overview 390

References 392

Chapter 21 SINGLE-PARENT FAMILIES: STRENGTHS, VULNERABILITIES, AND INTERVENTIONS 394

Introduction 394

Single Parents and the Family Life Cycle 396

New single-parent families with young children 396

Single-parent families with older children and adolescents 398

Single parenting in the post-childrearing years 399

When Single-Parent Families Seek Help 399

Case Illustrations: Single-Parent Families Seeking Help 401

Conclusion 404

References 405

Chapter 22 THE REMARRIAGE CYCLE: DIVORCED, MULTI-NUCLEAR AND RECOUPLED FAMILIES 408

Introduction 408

The Divorce–Remarriage Cycle 412

Predictable Issues in Remarriage 416

- Adjustment and family integration issues with stepparents and stepchildren 416
- The stress of money 418
- Gays and lesbians in stepfamilies 418
- Emotional issues: Anger, grief, pseudo-mutuality, loyalty conflicts, conflict and cutoff 418

Remarriage at Various Phases of the Family Life Cycle 419

- Spouses at the same life cycle phase 420
- Stepfamilies and young children 420
- Stepfamilies with adolescents 420
- The impact of remarriage in later life cycle phases 420

Clinical Intervention with Remarried Families 421

- Triangle between the new spouses and an ex-spouse 421
- Triangle involving a pseudo-mutual remarried couple, an ex-spouse, and a child or children 422
- Triangle involving a remarried couple in conflict over the child/children of one of them 422
- Triangle involving a pseudo-mutual remarried couple, his children, and her children 422
- Triangle involving a parent, the biological children, and the stepchildren 422
- Triangle involving remarried spouses and the parents of either 423

Clinical Guidelines 423

Case Illustration: Josh and Susan 424

Conclusion 427

References 427

Chapter 23 CHRONIC ILLNESS AND THE LIFE CYCLE 430

Introduction 430

The Dimension of Time 430

The Social Context of Illness and Disabilities 432

Psychosocial typology of illness 433

Time phases of illness 436

Clinical Implications 438

Interweaving of the illness, individual, and family development 439

Phases of childrearing and post-launching 440

Life cycle transition phases 441

Life structure-maintaining phases 442

Multigenerational experiences with illness, loss, and crisis 444

Life cycle coincidences across generations	448
Serious Chronic Mental Disorders	449
The New Era of Genetics	450
Conclusion	451
References	451

Chapter 24 ALCOHOL PROBLEMS AND THE LIFE CYCLE 454

Introduction	454
Definitions of Alcoholism	454
Scope of the Problem	455
Risk Factors/Vulnerabilities	455
Biology and genetics	455
Family of origin	456
Age	456
Attitudes and beliefs about alcohol	456
Psychiatric disorders	457
Social marginalization and devaluation	457
Understanding Alcoholism From a Family Life Cycle Perspective	458
Contextual factors	459
The launching and leaving phase	459
New Couplehood	460
Sober-intoxicated interaction patterns	461
Skewed boundaries	461
Poor communication and low problem solving	461
Overfunctioning/underfunctioning	461
Gay and lesbian couples	461
Relationship violence	462
Pregnancy and new Parenthood	462
Parenthood and young children	462
Approaches to parenting	463
Effect of Alcoholism on Children	463
Families with Adolescents	463
Midlife Change	464
Divorce	465
Aging and Later Life	465
Implications for Treatment	466
Case Illustration: The Burton Family	468
Conclusion	471
References	472

Chapter 25 VIOLENCE AND THE LIFE CYCLE 474

Introduction 474

Violence is Abuse of Power 474

The experience of violence is different for men and women 475

Not just a family legacy but a social legacy 475

Couples 476

Families with Children 479

Children experiencing physical violence 480

Child sexual abuse 480

Intervention begins with education 481

Bullying and cyber bullying 482

Families with Adolescents 483

Assessment 483

Intervention 484

Families at Midlife 484

Intervention 485

Older families 486

Conclusion 489

References 489

Chapter 26 CREATING MEANINGFUL RITUALS FOR NEW LIFE CYCLE TRANSITIONS 493

Introduction 493

Creating Rituals as a Developmental Task for Couples 494

Contemporary Life Cycle Transitions 495

Case Illustration: El Salvador and the Bronx 496

The Emergence of Symptoms 497

Case Illustration: The House-Cooling Party 497

Therapeutic Rituals 498

Case Illustration: The Giving of Gifts 498

Discussion of the Ritual 500

Healing Rituals 501

Case Illustration: Setting Fire to the Past 501

Identity Redefinition Rituals 502

Case Illustration: A Mutual Adoption Celebration 503

Designing and Implementing Rituals for New Life Cycle Transitions 503

Conclusion 504

References 505

Chapter 27 THE THERAPIST AND THE FAMILY: THE INTERSECTION OF LIFE CYCLES 506

Introduction 506

Case Illustration: Rachel 507

Case Illustration: Colleen 509

Families With Young Children: A Complex Intersection 511

Case Illustration: Allan 511

The Long-Term View: Working With One Family Over Successive
Life Cycle Stages 513

Working With Loss: A Link Between Life Cycle Stages 514

Conclusion 515

References 515

Name Index 517

Subject Index 529